Votre location / Your rental

Nestled in the commune of Petit-Bourg in Guadeloupe, this villa is set on an estate with six accommodations not overlooked, integrated into a lush garden around the historic remains of the former Tabanon Distillery, dating from the early 19th century.

Just 30 minutes from Pointe-à-Pitre airport, this vacation villa is located near Basse-Terre, on the picturesque route de la Traversée, linking the island's coasts through the National Park and its dense rainforest.

Close to the heavenly beaches of Grande-Terre such as Sainte-Anne, Saint-François and Le Gosier, as well as the lush beaches of the leeward coast such as Bouillante, Vieux-Habitants and Deshaies, this villa is an ideal retreat for families or friends in search of serenity and comfort.

The 133 m² villa can accommodate up to 8 people. A tree-lined driveway leads to the villa's entrance; the door on the left leads to a separate air-conditioned bedroom with four-poster bed and bathroom with walk-in shower. The door on the right leads to the villa's main block. The living area, open to a fully equipped kitchen, offers a seating area with a sofa bed and a flat-screen TV with streaming services. Two other air-conditioned bedrooms, one with a four-poster king-size bed and the other with two single beds, each have their own en-suite bathroom with a walk-in shower.

From the living room, you access a terrace with a dining area, extended by a deck offering a view of the greenery and the private pool. An intimate garden lounge completes this friendly space. The chlorine-treated pool is secured with an alarm. A shared laundry room with a washing machine and dryer is also available on site.

Located on the remains of a former distillery, this villa promises an eco-friendly stay in the heart of Guadeloupe. A 15-minute drive away, take the Traversée route to discover breathtaking landscapes, the Cascade aux Écrevisses, and the Zoo and Parc des Mamelles. Also explore the Cousteau Reserve and Pigeon Islets, or the white sandy beaches of Le Gosier for unforgettable moments in the heart of the Guadeloupe islands.
