Perched amidst the lush vegetation of Vieux-Habitants on the leeward coast of Basse-Terre in Guadeloupe, this villa is part of an exclusive estate comprising five redwood villas. Far from the hustle and bustle, it offers a perfect retreat for those seeking peace and serenity, in complete harmony with the surrounding nature.

Every detail of this home has been designed to ensure a rejuvenating and immersive stay. The estate features a pool area with breathtaking sea views, evoking the luxury of a high-end hotel. You can unwind in the infinity pool or in the relaxation area designed for optimal comfort.

About 45 minutes from Pointe-à-Pitre airport, this villa features an air-conditioned bedroom with a grand four-poster bed, quality bedding, a walk-in closet, and a solid wood desk. A ventilated mezzanine space, equipped with two single beds, is perfect for children or teenagers. The bathroom boasts a large walk-in shower and a beautiful basin.

The living area includes an elegant lounge with carefully selected furniture, as well as a modern kitchen that is fully equipped with a dishwasher, washing machine, oven, microwave, and all the necessary accessories for cooking as if you were at home. From the balcony, you can enjoy your private spa while admiring the sunset—a unique experience with a stunning view of the horizon.

Ideal for those looking to disconnect and relax, this villa also serves as the perfect starting point to explore the authentic and preserved treasures of Basse-Terre, such as La Grivelière, the Soufrière volcano, hot springs, Carbet Falls, and the Cousteau Reserve. Discover another side of Guadeloupe, authentic and wild.
